KALIMIN

Montana State University, Missoula, Montana

Volume LI Z400 Tuesday, April 18, 1950 No. 95

Perhaps the most difficult words to set down are those mourning the passing of a friend. No language is capable of completely expressing sorrow at such a time.

Though fully knowing that mere words can never be sufficient, the Kalmin staff wishes to extend its sincerest sympathy to the friends and relatives of Joe Geary.—The Staff.

Corbin Hall President in Fatal Crash

Joseph Geary, 20, Helmsville, was fatally injured Friday night when the jeep in which he was riding struck a bridge near Choteau killing him and injuring another passenger.

Geary was the second Corbin hall president to be killed in a highway accident. Donald Rizzonelli, Mullan, Ida., was killed last April 2 while motorcycle riding. Rizzonelli had just finished a term as president of Corbin hall.

Geary was winner of the beard championship at Forester's ball this year. He graduated from Powell County high school in 1947 as the valedictorian of his class. At the University he was a prelegal student.

He is survived by his mother, Madge, and father, Tom. One of his six brothers, Dan, is a student here. His cousin, Edna Geary, is also a student. A brother, Pat, is enrolled at Montana State college.

Other survivors include a brother, Dan L. Geary of Missoula. Jack, Tom, William, and Hughie are brothers who reside in Helmsville.

A coroner's inquest will be held Tuesday.

APPLICATIONS FOR EXAM ARE DUE APRIL 21

Application forms for the graduate record exam to be held here May 5 and 6 can be picked up from the graduate office in Science 210, according to Wesley P. Clark, dean of the graduate school.

The closing date for making application at the Los Angeles office of the Educational testing service is April 21.

The program for dedication of the Business Administration-Ed-ucation building will start at 10:30 a.m. today with a convocation in the Student Union auditorium.

Raymond B. Allen, president of the University of Washington, will deliver the opening address. The dedication address will be given by James A. McCain, president of Montana State University. George A. Selke, chancellor of the University of Montana, will give the response.

Afternoon Events

A luncheon is scheduled for 12:15 p.m. in the Bitterroot room of the Student Union for trade association executives and business administration faculty. Open house of the new building is scheduled from 1 to 5. At 6 p.m. the School of Education dinner will take place in the Montmartre cafe and at 6:30 p.m. the School of Business Administration dinner will be given in the Hotel Florence.

Construction of the $400,000 three-story Business-Ed-ucation building was begun in July, 1948, and was opened for classes at the beginning of winter quarter, 1950. The building was financed under the state's postwar construction program with a supplemental allocation from state legislature. The first and third floors are occupied by the School of Business Administration and the second floor by the School of Education.

Old School

The business ad school was established in 1914. It was elected to membership of the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business in 1949. Schools of business administration must meet professional standards and other requirements to be eligible for membership.

Business administration students may specialize in five fields: Accounting, banking and finance, business organization and management, marketing, and secretarial science and commercial teaching.

Twenty-five per cent of the student body is enrolled in the business administration school. Four hundred and thirty-one juniors and seniors are in business administration. Pre-business administration also has 431 students to make the school's total 862.

Has Wide Support

Business organizations, individual businessmen, and Montana trade associations have given support to the business administration school by providing various awards. The Montana Society of Certified Public Accountants offers scholarships to outstanding students. The Montana Automobile Dealers association and Montana Bankers association also offer scholarships.

The Montana Bankers association has established a student loan fund. The Montana Building and Loan association and Montana Insurance Agents association have

The state-wide photography contest co-sponsored by the journalism school and the Montana photographers association has received 183 entries.

The greatest number of entries, 100, was received in the Adult Amateur division. College students entered 51, professionals sent in 50, and high school students, 16, in their respective divisions.

Entries were received from photographers in all sections of Montana. Prizes worth more than $100 have been donated by business and civic organizations. Judging takes place today.

McCain Praises Building Milestone

"Dedication of the new Business-Ed-ucation building is a significant milestone in the progress of the University," President McCain said yesterday in a special statement for the Kalmin.

"The building will provide facilities for improved instruction in the schools of the state by providing better teachers. It will enhance the state's prosperity by preparing future business leaders for the state and by an industrial research program," he said.

McCain stated that it is the first new classroom building to be completed on the campus since the 1938 completion of the chem-pharm building.

"We can hope that it will be the forerunner of a series of new buildings to be built on the campus," he added.

Laura Bergh Wins Cosmetic Contest

Laura Bergh, Froid, was chosen MSU's 'Miss Fashion Plate of 1950' in a contest which closed Saturday, Donna Ring, Missoula, Revlon fashion board chairman, announced yesterday.

As the winner on this campus, Miss Bergh will receive a year's supply of cosmetics and will be eligible to enter the national contest for "Miss Fashion Plate." The national winner will get a free plane trip to Bermuda.

Other candidates were: Mary Breese, Poplar; Carol Guthrie, Minneapolis; Jane Hannah, Kalispell; Shirley Harris, Spokane; Marie Krebsbach, Missoula; Francis Simons, Missoula; Donna Skates, Billings; Gay Vannoy, Billings, and Garene Webber, Great Falls.

Other members of the fashion board are Edna Geary, Missoula; Margaret Jesse, Missoula; and Louise Franz, Kalispell.

Registrar Attends 'Frisco Confab'

Registrar Leo Smith left Saturday for San Francisco where he will attend the 36th annual convention of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admission Officers, April 17-21.

Smith said that workshop groups have been set up and have the following subjects on the agenda:

Public relations, ethics, admission policies, machine equipment, functional responsibilities of registrars, space utilization, evaluation of foreign credentials, and reporting grade curves.

Dear Editor:---the People's Voice

Today's editorial will be short. In fact, an editorial of any type has been just about crowded off the page by mash notes from our loyal and enthusiastic readers.

Which brings us to the subject matter for today's discourse, namely, the voice of the people so vociferously heard in the letters columns of the American press. Ah, the power of public opinion. It not only moves mountains but goes a long way toward solving an editor's space problems.

Perhaps the most famous letter to the editor in the history of journalism ran for 18 years and five months in the Paris edition of the New York Herald. It read as follows:

To the Editor of the Herald:

I am anxious to find out the way to figure the temperature from centigrade to Fahrenheit and vice versa. In other words, I want to know, whenever I see the temperature designated on the centigrade thermometer, how to find out what it would be on Fahrenheit's thermometer.

Old Philadelphia Lady

The theory behind OPL's long reign is that James Gordon Bennett, Herald publisher, flew into a tizzy when it appeared by mistake in two issues. He thereupon decreed that OPL's query would continue to appear in the same spot in every issue as long as he controlled the Paris Herald.

Since Kaimin make-up men and copyreaders are far, far too efficient ever to allow such a ghastly mistake to occur in the campus sheet, there is very little likelihood that one of our fans will find his deathless prose immortalized in more than one issue. However, we do enjoy the efforts of those willing to settle for one-night stands. At least it means someone is reading the damned rag.—D.G.

Letters to the Editor . . .

McCain CHALLENGES

Dear Don:

In behalf of the University faculty, I herewith challenge the student body to a softball game on Aber day. With teachers whose physical prowess more than matches their incomparable intellectual brilliance, we naturally expect the game to be one-sided. The lazy, shiftless behavior of the student body, both in class and out (but particularly in), more than confirms this suspicion.

Our pitcher has a lot of stuff never even heard of in the big leagues—not only an in-curve and an out-curve, but also the double whammy, the MSU grade curve, which has struck out thousands of students in the past.

Barring an epidemic of fallen arches, thrombosis, and other by-products of senility and physical degeneration (on the part of the students, I mean), we will meet you in the Clover bowl at 3 on Aber day.

Contemptuously yours,
James A. McCain,
President.

P.S. Should this epistle win the week's letter-to-the-editor prize, we of the faculty will smoke the carton of cigarettes and save the butts as a consolation prize for the student softball team.

WHAT A PARTY!

Dear Unity Party Editor:

How happy the tidings that we are free! At last, after years of oppression by "privilege government," the malignant electorate is to bask in the light of real representation by qualified officers.

Misappropriation of funds will cease, the athletic department will be emasculated, Central board "yes-men" will be dispatched (one delegate has even endorsed the statement charging him with being a yes-man all his career), Panhellenic and its legion following will cease to chafe; damn but we'll be happy!

We'll be represented up to our ankles by a new body politic, composed of delegates from every living group—what if this "Student Senate" idea did flog because of its impracticality? Who wants to be practical? Who wouldn't rather listen to debate than watch sweaty contests?

Unity Party qualifications?
Kaimin Editor: Not running; he's already in.

President: Has all the qualifications needed for the task; has been a student for seven quarters without flunking out and owns a suit.

Business Manager: Talks, organizes (the Unity party for one), goes to Law school, attends fraternity meetings every Monday night, talks.

Vice-president: Swims, acts, whistles at grass-walkers, and attends sorority meeting every Monday night.

Senior Delegate: May be many things: psychologist or journalist, skier or veteran, and will attend either a sorority or a fraternity meeting Monday nights.

Junior delegate: Plays in the band, doesn't have to go anywhere Monday nights.

Sophomore delegate: Runs, doesn't have to go anywhere Monday nights.

Never before in the history of campus political didoes has any party (those defunct Greeks included) displayed such impavid ingenuity in selecting a slate; never before have the voters faced such an awe-inspiring roster of Qualified Candidates.

With all due respect,
Reid Collins
Joyce Siperly
Sue Allen
Gene Kallgren

Doyle and Luckman Break Records As Grizzlies Lose

Our Dornblaser field records shattered Saturday as Washington State college's track team its eighteenth consecutive meet over Montana's Silver-93 3/4 to 37 1/4.

On the Grizzlies, Captain Dick le threw the discus 163 feet inches to break his own previous mark of 160 feet 8 3/4 inches.

Old, windy weather hampered performances of most of the athletes. However, Joe Luckman, 16-year-old Grizzly trackman, broad jumped 23 feet 5 3/4 inches to break existing stadium mark. He was 1/2 foot short of the world record jump of 26 feet 8 1/4 inches of Owens. Suffering from the effects of a siege of flu during the two weeks sophomore Luckman did not compete in the sprints and jumped only twice to win the broad jump.

Outstanding in the Cougar den were the performances of Eric Roberts, WSC soph, who leaped 6 feet 4 1/4 inches to break the mark of 6 feet 2 3/4 inches set by Jim Seyler of Montana in 1938, and Dick Nelson, another Cougar sophomore, who whipped the javelin 209 feet to smash the stadium record of Don Johnson of Idaho's Vandals, who once tossed the spear 205 feet on the Grizzly turf. The world record in this event is 258 feet 2 3/4 inches set by Vrho Nikkanen of Finland.

Most exciting race of the afternoon saw Howard Heintz, Grizzly speed merchant, edge out his WSC opponents in the last three yards after trailing all the way in the 440-yard run.

Johnny Higgins and George Stimac dominated the scoring for the Cougars, who won all the running events except the 440-yard run.

Even Break

The Grizzlies managed to garner an even break in the field events with Art Jansen pole vaulting 12 feet and Doyle performing above par with the platter. Doyle threw three times Saturday before he broke his record. He went over the 160-foot mark four times during the afternoon.

Montana's Al Widenhofer set the pace for two laps in the grueling two-mile run, but George Stimac passed him and went on to win first. Bob Selfridge, Cougar two-mile star, was off his top form and came in second in that event.

Fran Polsfoot easily outdistanced his opponents to grab first place in the high hurdles with winning time of 15.4 seconds, one second off his own and the stadium record.

Higgins was first in the low hurdles and John Badgley of Montana second. Swanbeck of WSC fell on the seventh hurdle after leading from the starting line. Higgins totaled 11 1/2 points for the Cougars.

Coach Harry Adams was particularly impressed with the performance of Heintz who won the 440. Adams is still looking for more men for his cinder outfit, particularly high jumpers and quarter-milers.

Saturday the track squad will be divided into two units to compete in an intra-squad meet. The fol-

Diamondmen Lose All Five In First Games of Season

Montana's baseball team had nothing but trouble in their opening spurt of games last week.

The diamond Grizzlies played five and lost five: Three against the class-C professional Great Falls Selectrics and two to Gonzaga university.

The Montana team will next see action against Whitworth in a Spokane doubleheader Thursday.

Erratic pitching by Grizzly Jim Lucas helped the Selectrics get the first one at Lewiston, Ida., 9-3. The Grizzlies put two runs across the plate in the first inning, but the Great Falls club came back in the third with three runs and in the fourth with four runs to take the seven-inning exhibition.

Thursday's Lewiston affair with the Selectrics was rained out, so the teams played a doubleheader Friday. The Great Falls crew won, 5-0 and 5-4. The Selectrics iced the top game with two runs in the second and three in the third. They tapped MSU moundman Don Fornall for six hits.

The second section saw the pro club push across the winning run in the bottom of the seventh.

The first game of the Gonzaga pair was cinched for the Spokane club when it scored two runs in the bottom of both the fifth and sixth innings. The score: 5-1. The second game, a scheduled seven inning tilt, went into an eighth with a 1-1 scoring knot. An outfield Grizzly error let the winning Bulldog run home.

The scores by innings:

Offers Undergrad Training

The School of Education is authorized by the State Board of Education to offer undergraduate training in education. This leads to the B.A. in Education degree for junior and senior high school teachers. It carries the sole responsibility among the state-supported institutions for graduate training in education. Master of Arts in Education and Master of Education degrees can go to elementary school teachers and principals, secondary school teachers and principals, student personnel specialists, and superintendents of schools.

James W. Mauker is dean of the School of Education. The school is accredited by the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. A close relationship exists between the School of Education, the State Department of Public Instruction, and the public elementary and secondary schools of the state. The annual spring meeting for school administrators is in session on the campus at the present time.

Allen Will Speak

This enables some of the more prominent educators of the state to take part in the dedication ceremonies. The Education dinner will have the State Board of Education in attendance and also many school administrators. President Allen is to give the talk at the dinner.
